I. OSCE Field Operations

South-Eastern Europe

The OSCE Presence in Albania

1. Basic Decisions

Establishment:
108th Permanent Council, 27 March 1997, Decision No. 160

Adjustment of the Mandate:
107th Permanent Council, PC.DEC/158, 20 March 1997
143rd Permanent Council, PC.DEC/206, 11 December 1997
156th Permanent Council, PC.DEC/218, 11 March 1998

Update of Mandate of the Presence:
488th Permanent Council, PC.DEC/588, 18 December 2003

2. Tasks

On the basis of the reports by the Personal Representative of the Chairman-in-Office, Dr. Franz Vranitzky, on his visits to Albania on 8 and 14 March 1997, and following the Decision No. 158 (107th Plenary Meeting of 20 March 1997), the Permanent Council in its Decision No. 160 (108th Plenary Meeting of 27 March 1997) decided to establish an OSCE presence in Albania in co-operation with the Albanian authorities and to provide the co-ordinating framework within which other international organizations can play their part in their respective areas of competence, in support of a coherent international strategy, and in facilitating improvements in the protection of human rights and basic elements of civil society.

1. In co-operation with other international organizations, such as the Council of Europe, the OSCE will provide advice and assistance, in particular in the following fields:

- Democratization, the media and human rights;
- Election preparation and monitoring.

Furthermore, the OSCE will explore other possibilities, including monitoring the collection of weapons.

The overall co-ordination of the efforts of the international community will be ensured by Dr. Vranitzky as Personal Representative of the Chairman-in-Office. He will report to the Permanent Council on progress achieved.
2. The Permanent Council

- Has taken note of the official appeal made by the Albanian authorities to a group of countries for assistance in resolving the security situation in Albania;

- Expects any assistance to be given in accordance with the United Nations Charter and OSCE principles and in accordance with appropriate action by the United Nations Security Council;

- Expects to be informed on any further steps to be taken in this context.

In Decision No. 206 of 11 December 1997 the Permanent Council made the following adjustments to its Decision No. 160 of 27 March 1997:

The Permanent Council decides that:

- In co-operation with other international organizations, such as the Council of Europe, the OSCE will provide advice and assistance, in particular in the field of democratization, media and human rights;

- The flexible co-ordination of the efforts of the international community will be ensured by the OSCE Presence in Albania acting as a clearing-house for information on the international efforts in Albania.

Recalling Permanent Council Decisions Nos. 158, 160, 168, and 178, and taking into account the conclusions of the Rome and Brussels Conferences on Albania, the Permanent Council further decides:

- To continue to provide a flexible co-ordinating framework in concert with the Albanian Government within which other international organizations can play their part in their respective areas of competence, in support of a coherent international strategy;

- That there will be semi-annual reviews of the implementation of this mandate and of the work of the OSCE in Albania.

In Decision No. 218, taken in a special session on the Kosovo crisis on 11 March 1998, the Permanent Council decided to temporarily enhance the monitoring capabilities of the OSCE Presence in Albania in order to allow for adequate observation of the borders with Kosovo, FRY, and prevention of possible crisis spillover effects. The Head of Presence will report regularly on his observations.

With the end of the Kosovo crisis in 1999, the border monitoring activities of the OSCE Presence were progressively downscaled and the border monitoring field stations were transformed into normal Field Stations.

In Decision No. 588 taken on 18 December 2003, the Permanent Council, recognizing the overall progress achieved in Albania in recent years, as well as the increased central position that the country’s institutions have taken, decided to update the mandate of the OSCE Presence in Albania to reflect the developments which have taken place in the country.

Working in close consultation and co-operation with the Government of Albania, the OSCE Presence provides assistance and expertise in the following areas:

- Legislative and judicial reform, including property reform;
- Regional administrative reform;
- Electoral reform;
- Parliamentary capacity-building;
- Anti-trafficking and anti-corruption, including supporting the implementation of relevant national strategies;
- Development of effective laws and regulations on the independent media and its Code of Conduct;
- Promotion of good governance and targeted projects for strengthening of civil society;
- Police assistance, in particular training for border police, within a co-ordinated framework with other international actors in the field;

Permanent Council Decision No. 405, 22 March 2001 (PC.DEC/405)
Permanent Council Decision No. 414, 7 June 2001 (PC.DEC/414)

Permanent Council Decision No. 457, 21 December 2001 (PC.DEC/457)
Permanent Council Decision No. 524, 19 December 2002 (PC.DEC/524)

The decision to establish a CSCE Monitoring Mission in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia was taken in mid-1992 in the context of the efforts to extend the European Community Monitoring Mission (ECMM) to neighbouring countries of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia to help avoid the spread of tension to their territories. A decision to explore with authorities in Skopje the possibility of dispatching similar missions under CSCE auspices was taken at the 15th Committee of Senior Officials (CSO) Meeting on 14 August 1992 (15-CSO/Journal No. 2, Annex 1).

The Steering Group on the Yugoslav Crisis worked out on 27 October 1992, the “Modalities and Financial Implications for the CSCE Spillover Monitor Mission to Skopje” which were adopted by the open-ended ad hoc Group on 28 October 1992, and approved by the 17th Meeting of the Committee of Senior Officials (CSO) on 6 November 1992 (17-CSO/Journal No. 2, Annex 3).

“Articles of Understanding Concerning CSCE Spillover Monitor Mission” were exchanged on 7 November 1992 by means of a letter from the Macedonian Minister of Foreign Relations, Mr. Denko Maleski, to the Chairman-in-Office of the Council of Ministers of the CSCE.

2. Tasks

According to the Modalities and Financial Implications as approved at the 17th CSO Meeting, the objective of the Mission is to monitor developments along the borders of the Host Country with Serbia and in other areas of the Host Country which may suffer from spillover of the conflict in the former Yugoslavia, in order to promote respect for territorial integrity and the maintenance of peace, stability and security; and to help prevent possible conflict in the region.
The above objective is specified in a mandate consisting of the following tasks:

- continue dialogue with the Governmental Authorities of the Host Party;
- establish contacts with representatives of political parties and other organizations, and with ordinary citizens;
- conduct trips to assess the level of stability and the possibility of conflict and unrest;
- engage in other activities compatible with the CSCE goals of the Mission as defined above;
- maintain a high profile in the country;
- in case of incidents, assist in establishing the facts.

The Permanent Council, in a special session on the Kosovo crisis on 11 March 1998, decided (PC.DEL/218) to temporarily enhance the monitoring capabilities of the OSCE Spillover Monitor Mission to Skopje in order to allow for adequate observation of the borders with Kosovo, FRY, and prevention of possible crisis spillover effects. The Head of Mission will report regularly on his observations.

On 22 March 2001, the Permanent Council, noting the reports of the Mission indicating an upsurge of violent actions by ethnic Albanian armed groups in the area of the northern border regions in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, decided to increase the size of the Mission by eight international personnel for a period of six months. “The additional staff members will work particularly in the border area, with a view to strengthening the capabilities of the Mission to monitor developments along the border and report, and perform other duties in accordance with the Mission’s mandate.”

On 7 June 2001, the Permanent Council decided to further increase the size of the Mission by ten international personnel (totaling 26).

On 6 September 2001, the Permanent Council decided to further increase the size of the Mission by 25 international personnel (totaling 51). “They will monitor and report regularly on the security situation in the host State, including: the situation in the northern border areas including illicit arms trafficking; the humanitarian situation, including the return of refugees and internally displaced persons and trafficking in human beings; the situation in sensitive places with communities not in the majority; and cases of incidents and recurrence of hostilities. They will not monitor the arms collection process or conduct operations aimed exclusively at observing compliance with the ceasefire.”

On 28 September 2001, the Permanent Council decided to further increase the personnel of the Mission on the basis of the existing mandate, by 72 international confidence-building monitors and 60 police advisers and 17 police trainers; as well as 10 international to deal with administrative and support matters:
“The monitors will contribute to the maintenance of stability and security in the country and to the building of general confidence amongst the population. They will report regularly on the security situation, including: the situation in the northern border areas including illicit arms trafficking; the humanitarian situation, including the return of refugees and internally displaced persons and trafficking in human beings; the situation in sensitive areas; and on cases of incidents and recurrence of hostilities.”

The police advisers were deployed to the sensitive areas, concurrently with the phased redeployment of the national police. “They will have no executive authority and are not to be seen as replacement for the national police or other lawful security forces in the host country. 3. Deployment

The OSCE Kosovo Verification Mission (KVM) reached a strength of approximately 1500 international staff by February 1999 but was unable to carry out the full scope of the tasks allocated under the FRY-OSCE Agreement. The security situation in Kosovo during this period was characterized as tense. Following a steady deterioration in the security situation in the Province, the OSCE CiO, Norwegian Foreign Minister Knut Vollebaek withdrew the KVM on 20 March 1999. The KVM was then temporarily based in Skopje, the capital of the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia. The bulk of its Mission members were repatriated. The Mission was temporarily organized as a Mission “Core”, responsible for administration and planning for the re-entry of an OSCE Mission to Kosovo; a Task Force in Albania to assist UNHCR with the refugee crisis and to conduct human rights investigations; and a further Task Force in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia performing similar functions. The KVM was later dissolved and the Task Force for Kosovo created in its stead by PC.DEC/296 on 8 June 1999, primarily tasked with preparing for re-deployment to Kosovo and continuing to assist the UN and other international organizations. The Task Force for Kosovo was dissolved on 1 July 1999 and replaced by the OSCE Mission in Kosovo by PC.DEC/305.

4. Duration

In its Decision No. 263, paragraph 3, the Permanent Council decided to establish the KVM for one year, with extensions upon the request of either the OSCE Chairman-in-Office or the FRY government. The Delegation of the Russian Federation formulated an interpretative statement to paragraph 3 of the Decision, attached to the Decision. The KVM was dissolved and the Task Force for Kosovo created in its stead by PC.DEC/296 on 8 June 1999.

5. Composition

The Agreement of 16 October 1998 foresaw in part IV the following structure for the Kosovo Verification Mission:

A Director, together with headquarters staff to be determined by Verification Mission requirements.

2000 unarmed verifiers from OSCE member states will be permitted. Headquarters and support staff included in this total. The Mission may be augmented with technical experts provided by OSCE.

A headquarters in Pristina.

Field presence in locations around Kosovo to be determined by the Mission Director.

A small liaison office in Belgrade.
Part V of the Agreement Field Presence established the following provisions:

Coordination Centres will be established in the capital of each opstina in Kosovo with specific areas of responsibility, under the Mission Director located in Pristina.

Many opstina coordination centres will have one or more sub-stations in smaller towns/villages in the opstina. The number and location of sub-stations will vary from opstina to opstina, depending on the verification environment and past conflict situation.

As described above the composition of the KVM subsequently evolved during the Spring and early Summer of 1999 into those now found in the OSCE Mission in Kosovo within the UNMiK structure.

3. Deployment

The OSCE AG to Chechnya began working in Grozny on 26 April 1995 and operated from there until 16 December 1998, when the AG’s international staff was evacuated to Moscow due to the deteriorating security situation. In subsequent months, the AG conducted several working visits to Grozny. Renewed armed hostilities required the remaining AG local staff to be evacuated to Ingushetia in September 1999. In December 2000 local staff moved to the new AG office in Znamenskoye in the north of Chechnya.

Since the beginning of 2001 the immediate priority of the AG’s activities was to ensure the return of its international staff to Chechnya. The negotiation process that began in 2000 to solve technical problems impeding the AG’s return, led to the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding on Security between the AG and the Ministry of Justice of the Russian Federation. On 15 June 2001, after almost two and a half years of evacuation, the AG’s international staff returned to Chechnya.

5. Composition

The modalities (PC.DEC/112) foresaw that the Mission would establish its headquarters in Zagreb and regional offices in Knin and Vukovar. It was composed of up to 8 members at headquarters, and of up to 3 members at each regional office. The appointment of the Head of Mission by the Chairman-in-Office will be subject to consultation with the authorities of the host country.

The PC Decision No. 176 of 26 June 1997 authorized the Mission to build up Mission personnel, starting July 1997, to a ceiling of 250 expatriates with a view to full deployment by October 1998. The current number of Mission members is 64. The personnel will be deployed by decision of the Head of Mission.

The PC Decision No. 181 of 17 July 1997 agrees that the Secretariat may recruit a maximum of four key administrative and support posts at the Mission Headquarters..... The principle of providing international staff for OSCE Missions exclusively on a secondment basis remains valid.

In the understanding reached between the Chairman-in-Office and Croatian authorities a temporary and technical increase in the ceiling to a maximum of 280 international personnel could be authorized. Permanent Council Decision No. 345, of 23 March 2000, reduced the authorized level of international personnel to 225. Permanent Council Decision No. 396, of 14 December 2000, further reduced the ceiling to 120. Permanent Council Decision No. 424 of 28 June 2001 authorised the Mission to maintain up to 100 international personnel. This number was further reduced to 90 international personnel by Permanent Council Decision No. 455 of 21 December 2001 and to 67 by Permanent Council Decision No. 514 of 12 December 2002. The total number of international staff was progressively reduced to reach 51 in July 2005 and 39 by 2006.

The Mission employed 30 internationals and 117 nationals, totaling 147 staff members.

The last Head of Mission was Ambassador Jorge Fuentes Monzonis-Vilallonga of Spain.

The mandate of the Mission to Georgia expired on 31 December 2008.

Military Monitoring Officers of the OSCE Mission to Georgia continued to operate in the areas adjacent to South Ossetia until 30 June 2009 under a separate mandate adopted by the Permanent Council under Decision No. 883 of 12 February 2009 (PC.DEC/883).

2. Tasks

According to the original Modalities and Financial Implications approved at the 18th CSO Meeting on 13 December 1992, the objective of the Mission was to promote negotiations between the conflicting parties in Georgia which are aimed at reaching a peaceful political settlement.

At the 14th Meeting of the Permanent Committee on 29 March 1994, new Modalities were decided for an expanded CSCE Mission to Georgia, based on recommendations submitted by the Personal Representative of the Chairman-in-Office in accordance with the Decisions of the Rome Council, which provided for a strengthening of the Mission. The original objective was complemented by a series of new objectives, namely to promote respect for human rights and assist in democratic institution building throughout the country; to monitor and promote free media principles; to facilitate co-operation with and among the parties concerned and, with their consent, to monitor the joint peacekeeping forces established under the Sochi Agreement of 24 June 1992, in order to assess whether their activities are carried out in conformity with CSCE principles, in particular those mentioned in chapter II, 3 of the Decisions of the Rome Council Meeting.

The above objectives for the expanded Mission are specified in a mandate consisting of the following points:

1) In relation to the Georgian-Ossetian conflict:

14 Subject to a silence procedure which expired on 1 April 1994, at 12 noon, without an objection.
15 As adopted on a preliminary basis by the Consultative Committee on 23 November 1993.
• facilitate the creation of a broader political framework, in which a lasting political settlement (...) can be achieved on the basis of CSCE principles and commitments;

• intensify discussions with all parties to the conflict, including through the organisation of round tables, in order to identify and seek to eliminate sources of tension and extend political reconciliation throughout the area of conflict.

  Make recommendations regarding the early convening of an international conference under CSCE auspices and with the participation of the United Nations, aimed at the resolution of the conflict, including the definition of the political status of Southern Ossetia;

• in pursuit of the monitoring role concerning the joint peacekeeping forces, establish appropriate forms of contact with the military commanders of the forces within the overall context of the CSCE negotiating efforts, gather information on the military situation, investigate violations of the existing cease-fire and call local commanders’ attention to possible political implications of specific military actions;

• be actively involved in the reconvened Joint Control Commission in order to facilitate cooperation with and among the parties concerned;

• establish contact with local authorities and representatives of the population and maintain a visible CSCE presence throughout the area.

2) In relation to the Georgian-Abkhaz conflict:

• ensure liaison with the United Nations operations in Abkhazia, in order to follow events closely and report regularly to the CSCE, inter alia with a view to facilitating the participation of the representative of the Chairman-in-Office, at the invitation of the United Nations, to the negotiations carried out under United Nations auspices.

3) In relation to Georgia as a whole:

• promote respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms and assist in the development of legal and democratic institutions and processes, including providing advice on the elaboration of a new constitution, the implementation of a legislation on citizenship and the establishment of an independent judiciary as well as monitoring elections;

• co-ordinate these activities with the CSCE High Commissioner on National Minorities and the ODIHR and co-operate with the Council of Europe, keeping also in touch with other international organizations active in Georgia in this field.
In addition, at the 262nd Plenary Meeting on 15 December 1999, the OSCE Permanent Council decided to expand the mandate of the OSCE Mission to Georgia to include a Border Monitoring Operation (BMO) (PC.DEC/334) “in order to observe and report on movement across the border between Georgia and the Chechen Republic of the Russian Federation, both by vehicle and on foot”. At the 373rd Plenary Meeting on 13 December 2001, the OSCE Permanent Council decided to expand the Border Monitoring Operation to the border between Georgia and the Ingush Republic of the Russian Federation (PC.DEC/450). At the 427th Plenary Meeting on 19 December 2002, the OSCE Permanent Council decided to further expand the Border Monitoring Operation to the border between Georgia and the Dagestan Republic of the Russian Federation (PC.DEC/523).

Also, at the 550th Plenary Meeting on 14 April 2005, the OSCE Permanent Council tasked the OSCE Mission to Georgia to implement the Training Assistance Programme (TAP) (PC.DEL/108/05/Rev.6) “in order to support the Georgian border guards in strengthening their border-management capacities and capabilities”.

Furthermore, at the 642nd Plenary Meeting on 29 June 2006, the OSCE Permanent Council tasked the OSCE Mission to Georgia to implement the Capacity Building Programme (CBP) (PC.DEC/731) in order to support the Georgian Border Police in the strengthening of their border management capabilities.

Following the August 2008 conflict in Georgia at the 728th Plenary Meeting on 18 August 2008, the OSCE Permanent Council, “striving to contribute to the full implementation of the six principles included in the agreement proposed by the French and Russian Presidents” decided “to increase for a minimum period of six calendar months the number of Military Monitoring Officers in the OSCE Mission to Georgia by up to one hundred” of whom “twenty will be deployed immediately in the areas adjacent to South Ossetia”, while “the rest of the additional Military Monitoring Officers will be deployed subject to a new decision of the Permanent Council on the modalities of the Military Monitoring Officers” (PC.DEC/861). At the 750th Plenary Meeting on 12 February 2009, the OSCE Permanent Council decided to extend until 30 June 2009 its Decision number 861 of 19 August 2008 (PC/DEC/883).

3. Deployment

The Mission started to work on 3 December 1992. The MoU with the Government of Georgia was signed on 23 January 1993, and the MoU with the leadership of the South Ossetian side was agreed by an exchange of letters on 1 March 1993.

The Mission operated throughout Georgia from the Headquarters established in Tbilisi. The Modalities of 29 March 1994 provided for a branch office in Tskhinvali, which became operational on 22 April 1997.

In 1997, a Memorandum of Understanding was signed between the OSCE and the UN Human Rights Office in Abkhazia, Georgia where one (at times two) OSCE officer was deployed. The MoU enabled the OSCE Mission to Georgia to implement the relevant parts of its mandate relating to the monitoring of the human rights situation in Abkhazia, while supporting the activities of the UN Human Rights Office in the region.
From 15 December 1999 until 31 December 2004 the Mission was also mandated to observe and report on movement across parts of the border between Georgia and the Russian Federation. While the area of operation of the Border Monitoring Mission (BMO) first only covered the border between Georgia and the Chechen Republic of the Russian Federation, it was expanded in subsequent years also to the Ingush and Dagestan segments of the Georgian-Russian border. The BMO then operated from its Head Office in Tbilisi, a Forward Supply Point in Telavi, eight Patrol Bases in Sno, Shatili, Girevi, Omalo, Napareuli, Kvareli, Akhalsopeli and Kabali as well as one Permanent Patrol in Assa.

From 18 April 2005 until 30 June 2006, the Mission carried out a Training Assistance Programme providing training for the Georgian Border Guards at four OSCE training centres in Lilo, Kazbegi, Lagodekhi and Omalo.

Within the framework of the Capacity Building Programme, from 1 July 2006, the Mission carried out training for the Georgian Border Police. The Capacity Building Programme was successfully completed on 30 June 2007.

During the August 2008 conflict in Georgia, the Tskhinvali Field Office of the OSCE Mission to Georgia had to be evacuated. Subsequently, the Military Monitoring Officers conducted their monitoring activities from a forward monitoring base located in Karaleti.

5. Composition

Originally, the authorized strength of the Mission was 8 members (including the Personal Representative of the Chairman-in-Office). Subsequent increases of the number of international staff were authorized by the 19\textsuperscript{th} Meeting of the CSO (4 February 1993), the 25\textsuperscript{th} Meeting of the CSO (3 March 1994), the 14\textsuperscript{th} Plenary Meeting of the Permanent Council (29 March 1994), the 18\textsuperscript{th} Plenary Meeting of the Permanent Council (27 April 1995), the 387\textsuperscript{th}
Plenary Meeting of the Permanent Council (12 April 2002) and the 522nd Plenary Meeting of the Permanent Council (6 August 2004).

The decision of the Permanent Council in December 1999 to establish the Border Monitoring Operation and its subsequent decisions to enhance the operational efficiency and the area of operation of the BMO led to a phased increase of the number of international personnel to 148 persons at the peak of the operation, all of whom left following the closure of the BMO.

The Mission had 30 international staff working under the Training Assistance Programme

After the establishment of the Capacity Building Programme in June 2006 and until its closure in June 2007 the Mission had up to 64 international staff, 26 of whom were working under the CBP.

In 2008, the Mission had a total of 183 staff members, of which 46 were international staff, and 137 were nationals.

Prior to the August 2008 conflict in Georgia, the number of Military Monitoring Officers in the OSCE Mission to Georgia amounted to eight, of whom five were permanently deployed in the zone of the Georgian-Ossetian conflict. Following the August 2008 conflict, twenty additional Military Monitoring Officers were deployed. The twenty-eight Military Monitoring Officers operated in the areas adjacent to South Ossetia. On 12 February 2009 it was decided to extend the mandate of the additional twenty Military Monitoring Officers until 30 June 2009.

During its administrative closure, which lasted until 30 June 2009, a reduced number of staff members of the OSCE Mission to Georgia provided administrative and logistic support, as well as information and political guidance, to the Military Monitoring Officers.

The last appointed Head of Mission was Ambassador Terhi Hakala of Finland.
